

RSCM BUCKINGHAMSHIRE DISTRICT

Raise the Roof!

Saturday 10th November 2007

St. Michael and All Angels Church, Aston Clinton

11.00 am - 5.00pm

Please come and support this event, where we will learn the music to be sung at Choral Evensong at 4.00pm. The day will be led by Ray Cook, Director of Music at St. Michael and All Angels Church, and recently retired Director of Music at Sir Henry Floyd Grammar and Performing Arts College, Aylesbury. The organist will be Emma Gibbins, from All Saints Church, High Wycombe, and the preacher at Evensong will be Revd Elizabeth Moxley, curate at St. Michael and All Angels Church.

Robed and un-robed choirs welcome. Choir leaders must be responsible for any under 18-year old choir members, as we are unable to accept unaccompanied under 18-year olds at this event. We will initially meet in the Anthony (Village) Hall. A map showing the location of the hall is enclosed with this Application Form.

The music will be provided on the day, and is as follows:

Introit: We wait for thy loving kindness, O God. McKie

Psalm: 145 Chant; Norris in Ab

Canticles: Harwood in Ab

Responses: Smith (5-part) with Lord's Prayer by Robert Stone

Anthem: Thou knowest, Lord. Purcell

Hymns: O God our help in ages past.

Christ is made a sure foundation.

When in our music, God is glorified

The cost is £5 per person. If you are interested please fill in the form below and return it to Peter Willett, 35 Jasmine Crescent, Princes Risborough, Buckinghamshire HP27 0AB by 1st October, or as soon as possible. (01844 343487 pandbw@beeb.net).

Please make cheques payable to RSCM Buckinghamshire District

Bring your own lunch, but refreshments at the tea break will be provided.

Name & Church: _____

Contact telephone no.: _____

No. of people attending: Trebles _____
Sopranos: _____
Altos: _____
Tenors: _____
Basses: _____

Total: _____