Cantate Domino Saturday 14th November 2009 St. Michael and All Angels Church, Aston Clinton 11.00 am - 5.00pm

Please come and support this event, where we will learn the music to be sung at Choral Evensong at 4.00pm. The day will be led by Ray Cook, Director of Music at St. Michael and All Angels Church, The organist will be Charles Wooler, and the preacher at Evensong will be Revd Elizabeth Moxley, Rector at St. Michael and All Angels Church.

Robed and un-robed choirs welcome. Choir leaders must be responsible for any under 18-year old choir members, (and have a completed parental consent form for each person), as we are unable to accept unaccompanied under 18-year olds at this event. You can get the form from Ray. We will meet in the Anthony (Village) Hall from 10.30am onwards. A map showing the location of the hall can be supplied on request.

The music will be provided on the day, and is as follows:

Introit: Cantate Domino - Petoni

Psalm: Yet to be decided

Canticles: Noble in B minor

Responses: Sanders

Anthem: O Thou the Central Orb - Wood

Hymns: When in our music, God is glorified.

Before the ending of the day - plainsong

Angel Voices. (Descant by Peter Leech)

The cost is £5 per person. If you are interested please fill in the form below and return it to Ray Cook, 103 Narbeth Drive, Aylesbury, Buckinghamshire. HP20 1NX by 1st October, or as soon as possible. (01296 485142 ray_cook17@hotmail.com).
