Grayston Ives Workshop
Saturday 22 November 2008, 2.00-4.15 pm
Magdalen College School, Oxford

Course Director: Dr Grayston Ives
(Organist, Informator Choristarum and Tutor in Music at Magdalen College, Oxford)

In recent years we have run a number of very successful choral workshops. Many of these have been under the direction of Grayston Ives, who has recently been awarded not only an FRSCM, but also the degree of Doctor of Music by the Archbishop of Canterbury.

The present workshop will explore two Oxford University Press compilations: the recently published Oxford Book of Flexible Anthems along with Epiphany to All Saints for Choirs. These volumes contain a wide selection of seasonal pieces and are suitable for all types of church choirs. The former, which has been conceived as a companion volume to the New Oxford Easy Anthem Book, has flexible scoring options, enabling performance by various combinations of singers, and making it eminently suitable for small choirs, young choirs and choirs whose numbers may fluctuate from week to week. Many of the pieces can be performed by more than one combination of performers, or sung in unison. Copies of both volumes will be on sale after the course at a discount price. The afternoon will end with a short service led by the Revd Canon T Wimbush, following which you will be welcome to attend a short organ recital in Magdalen College Chapel (5.25 pm), followed by Evensong (6 pm).

The workshop will take place in the Music School Recital Room. The charge is £5 for adults and £3 for children up to the age of 16. This charge includes squash/biscuits and also covers parking in the school playground. The playground is accessed via the entrance to the school at the end of Cowley Place (off The Plain roundabout).

Cheques should be made payable to "RSCM Oxford" and sent to Terence Carter, 88 Oxford Road, Cumnor, Oxford OX2 9PQ (tel. 01865 863379), along with the form below, duly completed.
